

CAMP PACKING LIST IDEAS

Use this list to help you determine the things you will need to bring to camp to ensure that both you and your dog have a good time and are safe while learning. Keep in mind what is needed at camp will vary from person to person and from dog to dog. Anything that is required for a specific class will be sent to you separately in a pre-camp memo.

Dog Stuff:

- Crates
- Bed
- water & food bowls
- food bowls
- toys
- collars
- leashes
- backpack for hiking
- life jacket
- water toys
- medications
- dog food
- dog treats
- treat bag
- bug spray for dogs
- 4-5 old towels
- shade cover for dog crate
- clickers
- nail clippers
- personal dog first aid kit
- big rug or mat to put crate on
- lots of poop bags
- fan for dog
- water for dog
- brush for dog
- long lines
- shampoo for dog

Human:

- 2-3 towels
- paper towels
- sleeping bag or bed linens
- pillow
- extra blanket
- handi-wipes
- hat & sunglasses
- cooler
- bottles of water
- small rug to wipe feet
- medications
- lawn chair
- pop
- snacks
- flashlight or lantern
- bug spray
- books/magazines
- shade tent or canopy
- bucket to carry to shower
- rain gear
- water shoes for pond
- shoes for shower
- hairdryer
- eyeglasses
- coffee cup
- clothing
- sweatshirt
- very light jacket
- heavy jacket if it is cold
- bathing suit
- beach towel

Toiletries & Personal Items

- watch,
- very little jewelry,
- suntan lotion,
- small first aid kit,
- small cooler
- batteries
- alcohol to drink
- emergency phone numbers
- any special info you want to share (good articles, books etc.)
- cell phone
- swiss army knife
- map
- citronella candles
- duct tape
- small bin to keep things in for easy reach
- bungee cords
- Kleenex
- credit cards
- personal checks

Cell Phone & Charger

Medical

- Information for Dog/Vet
- Information for you